Please share with your children before you go to Mass this Sunday – It's a link to the Sunday Mass readings.

Read together in order to help organize your thoughts/prayers before you attend Mass!!!!

The link to the full text of the Pope's new document (The Joy of Love) is found here in English "On Love in the Family"

First Communion Parents:

Due to the annual Feast of Ascension Mass scheduled for 7:30 PM on Thursday, May 5th

We will have to move our First Communion practice to the evening before (Wednesday, May 4th) from 6:30 – 8:30. This Practice is for the children only – of course Parents are welcome to come!

...your kids can do random acts of mercy any time; and would like to be encouraged by your example – so share some experiences with them!

Challenge them to do things for others because of the dignity of each person – and not for a new toy they really don't need!

Hospitality Sunday Get-Together will be May 1st for Kindergarten and first grade parents

There are NO CLASSES on Sunday May 8th: Happy Mother's Day!

Annual Confirmation retreat on Wednesday May 11th

Please pray for the following parish children who will be receiving First Communion on May 7th !!!

Danamarie Galindo, Antonio Hernandez, Stephen Jones, Gabriela Rodriguez, Joseph Speedone, Kyleigh Staunton, Brigitta Tedeschi, Tyler Venturini, Michael Daniel, Ayomide Idowu.

Catholic Underground – last one until October

All interested parents and children are invited to join us for pizza, music, and an amazing experience of our faith in action! We will leave the Church Parking lot via bus at 6:15PM on Saturday evening May 7th and will return by 10:30PM. We will be travelling via bus to Good Counsel Church on 90th Street in Manhattan. Go online and check out catholicunderground.net which is run by the Franciscan Friars of the Renewal. Contact Tony MacDonnell at amacdonnell@arcol.org or call (914) 471 2084 for more information or to register.

Dear Parents:

Here is another brief excerpt from the Pope's letter to families about the gift of children!

Let us once more take up the song of the Psalmist. In the home where husband and wife are seated at table, children appear at their side "like olive shoots" (Ps 128:3), that is, full of energy and vitality. If the parents are in some sense the foundations of the home, the children are like the "living stones” of the family (cf. 1 Pet 2:5). Significantly, the word which appears most frequently in the Old Testament after the name of God (YHWH, “the Lord”), is “child” (ben, “son”), which is itself related to the verb “to build” (banah). Hence, Psalm 128, in speaking of the gift of children, uses imagery drawn from the building of a house and the social life of cities: “Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labour in vain... Lo, children are a heritage from the Lord, the fruit of the womb, a reward. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one’s youth. Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them! He shall not be put to shame when he speaks with his enemies in the gate” (Ps 127:1, 3-5). These images reflect the culture of an ancient society, yet the presence of children is a sign of the continuity of the family throughout salvation history, from generation to generation.

God bless,

Tony

Discipleship

Last Fall I introduced the concept of the Year of Mercy convoked by Pope Francis. He called for this special moment of grace because he believes that we, the Church and society need to be more open to mercy and that we need to share this aspect of faith with others.

In order to bring to your child more of an awareness of the importance of the daily practice of mercy we will give each child a wrist band this Sunday that will say on it “Random Acts of Mercy” – in other words this will serve as a reminder that they should be merciful towards others at various times of the day, week and month and throughout this special Jubilee Year.

Above is a list of the traditional Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. Obviously some are more accessible than others for your children. Try and encourage what seems reasonable. They don’t have to do all of them. We are just trying to raise the consciousness in our Parish family in this area of faith development!

God bless,

David Steindl-Rast: Want to be happy? Be grateful

Published on Nov 27, 2013

The one thing all humans have in common is that each of us wants to be happy, says Brother David Steindl-Rast, a monk and interfaith scholar. And happiness, he suggests, is born from gratitude.

An inspiring lesson in slowing down, looking where you're going, and above all, being grateful.

Reminder about a basic "God Plan" for the New Year:

So what's your plan for the New Year? It's that time of year when we make new diet plans, exercise plans, spring vacation plans and maybe a new house budget. How about a God plan? I know you are intentional about all of the areas above, otherwise nothing new would ever happen in your family. I would like to invite you to consider putting some New Year's energy into a God plan. God waits patiently for us to take steps towards Him in response to the many graces he presents to us in our daily lives. Grace is all around us; assuring us that one of the characteristics of God is his omnipresence(He is everywhere). In other words we are never not in the presence of God. The challenge to each of us is to recognize these ongoing daily encounters and their meaning for our lives and families!

Here are a few simple steps I personally use each day. They may help you and your children become more aware of God's presence in your daily life:

1. Morning: when you get up encourage yourself and your children to say hello to God and to be grateful for something or someone! Encourage yourself and children to say something complimentary to others before they go to school – build up a habit of thinking positively of others!
2. Gospel for the day: Usccb.org it takes a minute to read the daily Gospel. Here's an online link. <http://www.usccb.org/bible/readings/011716.cfm>
3. At night thank God again for your day, food, good results at work, a moment of fellowship etc. Review your various encounters with others and any insights you had during the day. Take a look at the next day's Gospel passage (will just take a minute). This could be done on your own and/or with your children.
4. Next day – Repeat.
5. Bonus points: consider reading a Catholic book (a little at a time) or joining or beginning a discussion group focused on some aspect of the faith or spirituality. I am happy to offer suggestions for resources. I am just an email away: amacdonnell@arcol.org

The fruit of regular daily reflection is: "love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, and faithfulness" Galatians 5:22
